

Augers Posthole and Screw Type, UMI-534

Sampling Augers Posthole and Screw Type Type

Augers are used to collect disturbed soil samples at reasonable depths

We have 2 different types of Augurs available, 1) Posthole type and 2) Screw Type, mainly utilized for the purpose of collect disturbed samples of the soil at a considerable conducting laboratory test.

The Auger comprises of Auger head, handle, tee piece, as well as long rod. Moreover, depth to excavate the soil can be further increased with the help of additional extension rod.

- Posthole type Augurs Sizes available :
50, 75, 100, 150 mm dia
- Screw type Sizes available :
25,38,50,75,100,150,200,250,300 mm dia.

UMI-534